

Project Ideas

- Make or draw a flag to represent values of a democracy or totalitarian government with explanation and examples from the text
- character sketch of Jen in Among the Hidden
- Dress up and speak from their point of view - What would it be like to be Jen or Luke?
- Create a pledge, anthem, or poem of the perfect government
- Power Point comparing a democracy and totalitarian government
- Posters for the "Rally" with explanations for the rally and the sayings on their posters – What do you hope to change?

- Study a person in history who was not a baron or lawyer and made a positive impact in history and what did they change?

Possible people to explore:

- * Cesar Chavez, (migrant farm workers)
- * Martin Luther King (family of ministers)
- * Barak Obama (father goat herder and worked for Kenyan gov't – divorced when he was 2 yrs old)
- * Abraham Lincoln (farmers in Kentucky)
- * Rosa Parks (father carpenter – mother teacher)
- * Harriet Tubman (parents slaves)
- * Henry Ford (Irish immigrants and lived on a farm)
- * Ronald Regan (low income family – salesman and alcoholic father)
- Sequel Skit to determine the end of the story – Among the Hidden is part of a series
- A written story ending using a word processor
- Research population control in China and compare to ideas in Among the Hidden